Instructions for Completing the Lead-Based Paint Training Provider Application

Disclosure Notice

As a prospective District of Columbia accredited training provider, you are required by District Law to provide accurate information in seeking lead-based paint training accreditation in the District. False or inaccurate information could jeopardize your training provider accreditation and subject you to penalties.

I. General Applicant Information

Please supply the official name of your company as it appears in your Articles of Incorporation or business license. Your mailing address should include a physical site where your business is housed or conducted, and where you receive your official mail. Please indicate by a check mark the classification of type of company or business: corporate, individual, or partnership. If there is a different address than indicated in the initial mailing address, please supply an alternate location, which includes the city, state, and zip code. If your company is incorporated, please indicate the state in which it is incorporated and the assigned corporation number.

II. Training Manager & Principal and Guest Instructor's Information

A training manager and principal instructor's experience and training should conform to the requirements for training managers and principal instructors as outlined in the most recent United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) rules and regulations governing accreditation of training programs 40 CFR Part § 745.225. Visit www.epa.gov/lead Rules and Regulations for more information.

III. Application Information (as identified in Section I above)

The information requested in Section III pertains to the information that you supplied in Section I. You are also requested to provide information as to whether you have been accredited in other states or municipalities to conduct lead-based paint training, or whether you retain affiliation with other organizations that have been accredited to perform lead-based paint training. You should list courses for which you have been accredited to provide training.

IV. Applicant's History of Legal Actions

If you or your company or any individual identified in this application has been the subject of, or has pending disciplinary or enforcement actions against them, including suspensions, revocations, citations, or violations issued by a governmental or regulatory agency. These agencies include the United States Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA), District of Columbia Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs (DCRA), the District of Columbia, District Department of the Environment (DDOE) or other established regulatory entities. You must provide accurate requested information in response to the questions in this application.

V. Applicant Statement and Signature

As an applicant, you are affirming that the information that you have supplied is true and accurate to the best of your knowledge. If you have provided false or misleading information, you are subject to punishment and/or fines as specified in District of Columbia law. The District may also refuse to accredit your company or courses.

Documents Required

(For renewals, submit only the application, fee and documents “not approved during a recent audit”)

V. Applicant Statement and Signature

The information that I have provided in this “Application for Lead-Based Paint Accreditation” is true, accurate, and complete to the best of my knowledge. I certify that I am authorized to sign this application on behalf of the persons listed in this application as the owners, partners, shareholders, officers, and directors of the company that is applying for accreditation as a training provider and/or accreditation of training courses.

I understand that this application is subject to verification, and I agree to provide any additional documentation required to review that application. I also understand that outside sources may be contacted for purposes of verifying the information contained in this application, and I hereby give permission for the disclosure of any information that may be needed to determine the validity of the information that I have provided and/or to determine to eligibility for the accreditation sought. I understand that failure to provide full disclosure of any requested information that may be needed to determine the validity of this application or eligibility for accreditation may result in the rejection of this application. I also understand that completion of this application does not guarantee accreditation as a lead-based paint training provider in the District of Columbia.

Further, I understand that if the Department finds that I have made a false statement or misrepresentation material to the issuance, modification, or renewal of an accreditation, the Department may, after notice and opportunity for hearing, suspend, revoke, modify, or refuse to issue, renew, or restore an accreditation issued under the Section 13 of the Lead-Hazard Prevention and Elimination Act of 2008, D.C. Law 17-381, effective March 31, 2009. The Department may also seek to impose administrative, civil, or criminal penalties under D.C. Law 17-381. Finally, I understand that under D.C. Official Code § 22-2405, any person convicted of making false statements shall be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned for not more than 180 days, or both. A person commits the offense of making false statements if that person willfully makes a false statement that is in fact material, in writing directly or indirectly to any instrumentality of the District of Columbia Government, under circumstances in which the statement could reasonably be expected to be relied upon as true.
